"THE GERM"

A Highclass Moral Drama: Six-reels of Science, Romance, Thrills and Comedy.

Bookings Arranged for All Benefits.

San Antonio, Texas, July, 10/23.

DISCRIPTION OF "THE GERM" ✓

The motion picture, is a high-class moral drama, and deals with a new Scientific theory, that germs in the blood denote personality, and that germs can be eradicated and that will eradicate, these germs, after which, a man can commit no crime.

The story revolves around the personality of a wealthy young scientist, Charles Swinton, who devotes his life and fortune to running down, these germs. He has a love affair with a social butterfly, Waunda Wilson. She has a drunken Doctors neglected daughter, Nellie, who is to do some sewing for her, that she did not like, she tears the sewing into shreds, and throws her out of the house, and falls almost in the arms of Charles Swinton, who was coming to call on his, one perfect woman. She became enraged because he takes sides with her and orders him to leave her sight. She hates him and wants him to come back, but her beautiful form, turns in to a butterfly, and into a butterfly and she leaves his sight for ever.

Doctor Patton, once a noble doctor, takes the alcoholic route, and becomes the scourge of the community. They threaten to hang him but he escapes. He is a Scientist and the Doctors daughter. He takes her home, sends Mrs. Patton, to the Hospital and sends her home. She arrives at school in rags and in the light of day, but later becomes a favorite.

The young Scientist, Charles Swinton, attend an International Society of Scientists, who give him his theory, that germs in the blood determine personality. A huge sum of money was donated and after many months of patient research work, serums are found to eradicate Alcoholism, Narcotics, Jealousy, and Greed, and after the serums are put in general use, there is no more use for Courts or jails, and "The Brotherhood of Man" becomes a practical reality.

John Arnold a wealthy lumber dealer, and ship owner, robs a poor man of his barge, but after he has been treated for Greed he could not rest, and hunts up the man who he had robbed, and tells him that he had robbed him of his barge, you could do nothing in the courts against us. Your barge earned $20,000. and I want to pay you. The man who had been robbed, said that his family had been sadly neglected on account of being robbed of the barge, but that he did not need the money now, and to give it to others who are less fortunate.
